Lifeline Theatre's Hit "Busman's Honeymoon" Adds Five Week Extension Through July 26, 2009

WHAT: Lifeline Theatre concludes its 26th anniversary MainStage season with the world premiere adaptation of Dorothy L. Sayers' "Busman's Honeymoon," adapted by Lifeline ensemble member Frances Limoncelli, and directed by Lifeline ensemble member Paul S. Holmquist. Wedding bells have finally rung for amateur sleuth Lord Peter Wimsey and novelist Harriet Vane. But their quiet, country honeymoon becomes a farce full of eccentric locals, exploding chimneys and even a body found in the wine cellar. This inauspicious beginning begs the question - when life gets in the way, can love persevere? Lifeline ensemble members Peter Greenberg and Jenifer Tyler reprise their roles as Lord Peter Wimsey and Harriet Vane in this sequel to "Gaudy Night," which premiered at Lifeline Theatre in 2006. The show runs about two hours with one intermission. On June 8, Lifeline received four Non-Equity Jeff Awards out of 14 nominations.

Lifeline has produced three previous world premiere stage adaptations of Sayers' Wimsey books - "Gaudy Night" in 2006, "Strong Poison" in 2004, and "Whose Body?" in 2002. Limoncelli adapted all three productions, and "Gaudy Night," and "Strong Poison" garnered Non-Equity Jeff Awards for New Adaptation. Greenberg received an After Dark Award for Outstanding Performance for his portrayal of Wimsey in "Strong Poison," and both he and Tyler were nominated for Jeff Awards for their performances in "Gaudy Night." Holmquist directed Lifeline's adaptation of "The Island of Dr. Moreau," which won five 2008 Non-Equity Jeff Awards, including Best Production-Play.
